What is S.A.R.S. ?

S.A.R.S. (Sinjski amaterski rock susret) is an annual alternative culture festival organized by the Sinj Cultural Urban Movement (S.K.U.P.) in Sinj, Croatia. This year, the festival celebrated its 20th anniversary.

The idea for S.A.R.S. Festival dates back to 2003, when it didn't yet have the characteristics or title of a festival. It was initiated by young residents of Sinj and has since become a regional festival with a strong focus on alternative music and emerging bands. Over its 17-year history, the festival has featured a diverse lineup of artists, including Let 3, Rambo Amadeus, Dubioza kolektiv, Dječaci, Edo Maajka & band, and many others.
